A Day's Doings in Kentucky

SAFE LEFT UNLOCKED.

Robbers Entered the Store and Carried Away $3,000.

Middlesboro, Ky., Dec. 11.—The safe in the grocery store of Owsley & Son, in this place, was burglarized and nearly $3,000 was taken. The robbery occurred at 7 o'clock. The robbers entered the store through a rear window and, turning the night latch on the safe, secured all the money and made their escape. The safe had been left unlocked through the carelessness of a member of the firm. Knoxville was telephoned for bloodhounds, which will be placed on the trail.

WHILE RESISTING ARREST.

Deputy Sheriff Holliday Shot and Killed By Jake Noble.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 11.—In attempting to arrest Jake Noble at Jackson Grant Holliday, a deputy sheriff, was shot and killed. Holliday had a warrant charging a misdemeanor and sought out Noble in the suburbs. It is not known what words passed between them, but Holliday shot Noble in the face with a shotgun, raising on his elbow Noble fired six bullets into Holliday, killing him instantly. Noble is not expected to live.

WITHOUT PROVOCATION.

An L. & N. Section Hand Killed a Brakeman, It is Alleged.

Beattyville, Ky., Dec. 11.—William Newman, brakeman on the L. & N. railroad, was killed here. James P. Gunn, a section hand, is accused of the murder. It is alleged that Gunn, without provocation, shot Newman while the latter was on his way home from the yards. The depot agent, P. H. McIntosh, hearing the shots, ran to Newman, who died in a few seconds. The incident leaves a widow and two children.

Plan Important Changes.

Shelbyville, Ky., Dec. 11.—The senate committee on revenue and taxation, which has been in session here all week preparing the new revenue bill for the next general assembly, has adjourned to meet here again on December 19. It is understood that there will be important changes in the method of assessment and collection of taxes.

Securing the Right of Way.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 11.—The Central Kentucky Natural Gas Co., which proposes to furnish all of the Central Kentucky towns with natural gas from the wells of Menifee county, have secured the right of way from this city, the gas fields, with the exception of a small tract of land near Winchester.

Wants Another Name.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 11.—As it is of all occurrences that his name is connected with that of his brother, Attorney Nathaniel H. Hobbs, of this city, will ask the next session of the Kentucky general assembly to permit him to change his name, but so far he has declined on a cognomen.

Murder and Suicide.

Newport, Ky., Dec. 11.—Coroner Nathan Higgins says he will return verdict of murder and suicide in the case of Robert McDyer, 23, and his young wife, Lizzie McDyer, 17, of Melbourne, Campbell county, Ky., who are found dead late Saturday night and tragical circumstances.

Healthy Triplets Born.

Corinth, Ky., Dec. 11.—The wife of an Henry Woolens, who lives on Lacey Creek, Owen county, Ky., gave birth to triplets, two boys and a girl. Dr. B. R. Lancaster, of New Columbia, Ky., the attending physician, reports the children doing well.

Married Half a Century.

Covington, Ky., Dec. 11.—J. Fred Rothenhoefer and his wife have just celebrated the golden anniversary of their marriage with a family reunion at their home, 24 East Robbers street. Mr. Rothenhoefer is 73 years of age and his helpmate is 75.

Killed in a Shooting Gallery.

Powling Green, Ky., Dec. 11.—Paul Bowles, aged 26 years, died at the Huddle sanitarium in this city as the result of pistol shot wounds received at the hands of W. C. Poston, proprietor of a shooting gallery on Main street, in a quarrel.

SAVED BY THE POLICE.

Nathaniel Sharp Had a Close Call at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 12.—Nathaniel Sharp, claiming to be a resident of Richmond, Ky., was arrested here charged with detaining Misses Susie and Katie Ray against their will. Much excitement prevails in the southern part of the city, where the young women live, and had it not been for the officers Sharp would have been severely dealt with. According to the statements of the two young girls the man followed them for some distance and just before they reached their home he grabbed both of them, and when they made an effort to escape he shoved one of them against a tree, severely bruising her about the face, while the other was pushed to the street, a distance of 15 feet. The girls screamed and neighbors rushed to their assistance. Officers Langston, Veal, Sloan and Sergt. Ryan responded to a call and in less than 15 minutes Sharp had been arrested and taken before the young women, who positively identified him. He was hurried to headquarters to escape a howling mob.

CAUSED A SURPRISE.

James A. Todd Named As Assistant Postmaster.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 12.—Postmaster Charles H. Berryman announced the appointment of James A. Todd as assistant postmaster to succeed Geo. R. Warren, who has held the place since the retirement of Thomas L. Walker two years ago. After the death of Postmaster Elkins several months ago Warren was named by the boardmen to act as postmaster until the president made the appointment, and he gave such general satisfaction that the appointment created a sensation in political circles. In order to appoint Todd and at the same time take care of Mr. Warren, Postmaster Berryman created the office of chief clerk and placed Warren in charge of all the office force, this being approved by the president. Warren is the oldest man in point of service in the local office, and it was believed by many that he would be appointed postmaster to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Elkins.

JURY IN THE LOVING CASE.

Banker on Trial For Killing a Merchant in Paducah.

Paducah, Ky., Dec. 12.—The H. H. Loving murder case went to trial. It required nearly all the afternoon to get a jury. Loving's attorneys are Congressman Ollie James, of Madison; Cecil Reed and J. G. Flournoy, with City Prosecutors T. B. Harrison and Hal Corbett, of Paducah, for the prosecution. Loving, a former banker and prominent capitalist, it is alleged, killed H. A. Ross, a lumber dealer, last summer.

Killed By a China Doll.

Covington, Ky., Dec. 12.—A china doll was the cause of the death of Elizabeth Parton, 13, living on Beech avenue. The little girl was employed by a Cincinnati firm, and one of her bosom friends tossed a small china doll baby to the Parton girl, telling her to keep it as a remembrance. The girl put the doll in her mouth, and, in bidding her friend good-by, swallowed the plaything.

Filed a Deed of Assignment.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 12.—With liabilities amounting to $37,000 and with only $2.87 in the treasury, E. D. Martin and the board of directors of the People's Life and Accident Insurance Co., with headquarters in this city, filed a deed of assignment and asked for the appointment of a receiver.

Killed in a Runaway.

Paducah, Ky., Dec. 12.—As her horse started to run away, in Calloway county, Mrs. Jesse Swift jumped from the buggy, and was killed. Her neck was broken. Her daughter remained in the buggy and stopped the animal. Mr. Swift is a farmer.

Sorrow at Louisville.

J. W. HUTCHESON, Cashier.

To The Tax Payers of Rockcastle County:

I have been appointed Sheriff to fill the unexpired term caused by the death of my father, H. L. Tate. I have until the first of January in which to collect the tax for the year 1905, and the uncollected tax for the years 1902, 1903 and 1904; and all persons owing tax for either of the above years must call and settle same at once. I don't wish to put any taxpayer to any cost, but this year's work must be settled; and I have instructed my Deputies to collect the tax due in each of their territories; and if they are not paid I have ordered them to levy them, and you must settle them at once. We will do no more riding. You must call at my office and settle.

Very respectfully,
VICTOR C. TATE, S. R. C.
